

The Praying For Missionaries Worksheet is designed to help you intercede specifically for missionaries and their needs. It is intended as a guide to aid you in praying with power for particular missionaries and their needs.

This worksheet has a place for you to record the name of the missionary and his/her/their place of service. The next space allows you to record specific needs that the missionaries have. You can record these here and keep a record of them. After this, you are given space to record the particular needs of the country in which the missionaries are serving. The conditions of a country do affect the missionaries and their labors there. You can make a difference in the country and the labors of the missionaries by interceding for its particular needs. This final section gives you a place to record any insights that the Holy Spirit gives you as you pray. He may direct you to pray for specific blessings or concerning specific circumstances. You can record verses of Scripture that the Spirit brings to your mind in this place. You can use this worksheet or adapt your it to your journal. As you record this information, it will help you to develop a prayer strategy for the missionaries, their lives, and their labors.
