Praying About Your Wife's Trust

Your wife's trust is a fragile gift. You must strive to be the kind of man that she can trust. Moreover, you have to cover this area in prayer. If you feel that your wife does not trust you, it's not so much that she doesn't want to trust you. It's just that she can't trust you.

Perhaps her dad or a boyfriend did or didn't do something that causes her to be hesitant in trusting. Perhaps frightening things happened in her past. It might be that her relationship to God is not intimate and she hasn't learned the safety and security of trusting Him. Your wife may have had experiences that make it difficult for her to trust you. There is hope though.

Through your praying, she can be healed and she can learn to trust you. The following Scripture prayers can help you pray about this vital area. You might consider praying one day on a regular basis.

Father, Your Word declares that the heart of the virtuous woman's husband trusts safely in her. This is Your desire for me. I ask You to reveal to me areas where I do not trust _____. Reveal to me any area of my life in which I am afraid to trust _____. Grant me the strength to confront and overcome this fear of trusting her (Proverbs 31:11).

Father, I plead with You to show me areas where I have not been worthy of _____'s trust. I ask You to reveal to me areas where I have violated _____'s trust. Grant me the strength and grace to confront this and to make this right with _____. I pray that You would transform me and make me into the man, the father, and the believer that she can trust. I pray that she would have the ability to trust me in all things (Proverbs 28:13).

Father, I ask in the name of Jesus that _____ would trust in You with all her heart. I pray that You would teach her that she can trust You and that You will never fail her. Cause her to know that You are her Rock and Refuge (Proverbs 3:5).

Father, I pray that You would heal _____ of the emotional wounds that make it difficult for her to trust You and me. I ask You to release Your grace and mercy in her life. Grant Your healing of all the wounds that cause her to hesitate in trusting. Remove the hurts and replace them with Your love and power (Psalm 147:3).

Father, empower me to love _____ as Christ loved the church. Enable me to sacrifice myself for her. I ask that I would love her and sacrifice for her in such a way that she can trust me. I pray that You would enable me to show her the love that I have for her (Ephesians 5:25).

Father, cause _____ to see Your work in my life. I ask that she would trust that You are working in my life. O God, change me and reveal these changes to _____.
(Philippians 2:12-13).

I pray that _____ would trust in You and would rely on You in all the circumstances of her life. Father, in every circumstances of her life, deliver her from fear and anxiety. Even when she is walking in darkness, cause her to know that You are there and that You will not forsake her (Isaiah 50:10).

Father, I ask that _____ would put her confidence in You. Set her free from ever placing more confidence in people than in You. Teach her to trust You above all others (Psalm 118:8).

Father, I ask that _____ would put her trust in You. Cause her to know that You are her Rock and Fortress and her Deliverer. Teach her that You are the God of her strength (2 Samuel 22:2).

Father, I ask in the name of Jesus that You would increase _____'s faith. I plead that You would transform her into a woman of great faith. I pray that she would please You with her faith. Cause her to know that You are the God of power and that You answer those who diligently seek You (Hebrews 11:6).

Praying For Your Child's Relationship To God's Word

A love for the Word of God can begin at an early age. This love is crucial for your child's life. The Word of God can provide direction and offer guidance to your child. It can reveal God and His will to your child. As your child grows in his or her love for the Word of God, he or she will turn to it and seek its truths. This is sowing a spiritual habit that will bless and direct him or her all the days of his or her life.

The following prayers can help you pray for your child to have a love for God's Word. You can use these or develop your own from them. In order to use the prayers, place your child's name in the blank and plead the truth of the Scripture in his or her behalf.

Father, I plead that _____ will know that the Bible is the Word of God. Cause him/her to know that You inspired the Bible and that it is Your Word to him/her. Grant him/her certainty and conviction in this matter. Show _____ that it is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting, and training in righteousness (2 Timothy 3:16).

Father, I pray that _____ would not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God. Grant _____ a consuming passion for Your Word (Deuteronomy 8:3; Matthew 4:4).

I ask that Your Word would be a lamp to _____'s feet and a light to _____'s path (Psalms 119:105).

Father, I pray that _____ would not merely hear the Word of God. I plead that he/she will hear and obey the Word of God. Deliver him/her from being a careless hearer of the Word of God (James 1:22).

Father, I plead that _____'s heart would be good soil, receiving Your Word and bearing fruit for You. Let him/her retain Your Word and produce a crop of godly character, holiness of life, and effectiveness in the kingdom of God. I ask that You would keep Satan from snatching it from _____'s heart. Don't allow the worries, pleasures, and riches of life to choke out Your Word in his/her life and make it unfruitful in his/her life. Let the roots of Your Word grow deep into his/her heart and mind so that he/she can preserve and endure the testing of his/her faith (Luke 8:11-13).

Father, I ask that _____ would separate himself/herself from the ungodly. Yet, I pray that _____ would saturate his/her life with the Word of God. Cause him/her to take delight in Your Word, meditating on it day and night. Let him/her be deeply rooted in Your Word so that he/she can prosper in his/her life (Psalm 1:1-3).

Father, teach _____ to know Your commands and obey You, demonstrating his/her love for You (John 14:21).

Father, I plead that _____ would hide Your Word in his/her heart so that he/she will not sin against You. Grant him/her a love for memorizing the Word of God (Psalm 119:11).

Father, I ask You to open _____'s eyes to see the wonderful truths in God's Word. Help him/her understand Your Word (Psalm 119:18).

Father, I pray that _____ would love Your Word with all his/her heart. Cause him/her to think about it all day long (Psalm 119:97).

The Middle East And The Model Prayer

In the past months, we have seen bubbling unrest in the Middle East. This unrest is boiling over into a variety of conflicts and problems – problems that reach beyond the region. What goes on in the Middle East affects the whole world.

As Christians, we need to cover this region in prayer. We must stand in the gap for the church in these areas. We must plead for God’s work of grace in the hearts of the lost in this region. We can make a difference if we pray.

For this reason, I want to encourage you to pray for the nations in this area. In this issue of Global Point Men, I’m including a list of the nations that make up this region. I’m also sharing a prayer guide that is based on the Model Prayer. It can help you offer Scriptural intercession.

You can do this in a variety of ways. You might consider praying for a nation a day on a regular basis. You might use one Scripture prayer a day for the region. There are a variety of ways to do this. The key issue is to pray! Please also consider sharing this material with others. The Middle East is a hotbed, a crucial place in the history of our world. We must intercede for this region.

The Model Prayer And Missions (Matthew 6:9-13)

The Model Prayer provides the believer with an outline of prayer. It also offers an outline for intercession. You can use the Model Prayer to plead for God's work of grace in a nation or among a people group. The following prayer guide uses the Model Prayer as a way to plead for the salvation of people. In order to use the prayer guide place the name of the nation or people group in the blank.

Father, You are God. You reign in heaven. Heaven is Your throne and earth is Your footstool. I pray that _____ will recognize that You are the only true God who reigns over all. Reveal Your greatness and Your power to them. Reveal to them that all other gods are foolish, powerless, and will lead them to an eternal hell. I ask that they will turn from their sin to You through Christ so that they can know You as their Father.

Father, I pray that Your kingdom would come to _____. I ask that You will send missionaries to _____. I plead that Your kingdom would advance and spread among them as they repent of their sin and turn to Jesus Christ in faith. Holy Spirit, I plead that You would manifest Your power in _____ by exalting Jesus Christ and drawing _____ to Him. Father, I ask that Your kingdom would be established in the hearts of _____ as they turn to Him in faith and repentance. Remove any obstacles to Your kingdom in _____.

Father, I ask that Your will would be done in _____. I pray that _____ would be submissive to You and Your will. Grant to them a heart to obey You. I plead that they will have a willingness to submit to You and Your holy and perfect will. Let Your will be done in _____ as it is done heaven.

Father, I pray that You would meet the needs of _____. I ask You to supply their every need according to Your power and riches. Pour out Your blessings on them. Show them that You are the true God, the source of all blessing. Let them know that it is You who meet their needs. Cause them to see that You are the only One who can meet their deepest need.

Father, I plead that _____ would experience Your forgiveness through Jesus Christ. Let them know the sweetness and the peace of forgiveness through the blood of Jesus Christ. Lead them to repentance and faith in Your Son so that they can experience this forgiveness. O God, create within them a forgiving heart. I ask that they in turn would forgive as You have forgiven them. Remove hatred, vengeance, and bitterness from their lives.

Father, I pray that You would deliver _____ from temptation. Set them free from the sins that bind them. Deliver them from the sins that will lead them away from Jesus Christ and to eternal damnation. I pray that You would protect them from the evil one. He has plans to steal, to kill, and to destroy _____. Righteous Father, I plead in the name of Jesus that You will destroy all of Satan's plans for _____. Break the stronghold that he has over _____. Destroy the sins that he has used to hold _____ in bondage. I pray that _____ would be delivered from the kingdom of Satan and transferred to the kingdom of Your dear Son.

Father, I plead that You would make _____ a trophy of Your grace. Transform them so that they can praise You and reveal Your greatness, Your love, and Your mercy. Let Your kingdom come among them. Let Your power flow among them and bring salvation and wholeness to them. Let Your glory be revealed among them and in them. Amen.

Confessing God's Word

"Drink water from your own cistern, and running water from your own well" (Proverbs 5:15).

Father, thank You for _____. I plead that we would enjoy each other. Grant us pleasure and delight in one another. Enable us to receive deep satisfaction from each other. You have given me _____. Cause our relationship to be a well of pleasure and delight that we drink from on a daily basis. Amen.

My Confession: I will seek to find delight and satisfaction in my relationship to my wife. I will labor to be the kind of man that will bring delight and satisfaction to my wife.
